

Always Walk with Confidence

Always walk with confidence

Because you're walking with your ancestral inheritance

Your family heritage is your private traveling cohort

Who will always offer their loving spiritual support

For generations they have nurtured your family's homestead

To guide you along your life's path ahead

Be assured that you're not walking alone

For the footprints to travel have already been shone

Ancestors' past struggles have stabilized your pillars

Serving as present time role models and exemplars

So always walk with an upward tilted chin

Because you're uplifted by your guardian angels and eternal kin

Always walk and speak with great confidence

Do not muffle yourself in deafening silence

Always walk with your head held high

Do not appear at all timid nor shy

Always walk with your spine vertical and straight

Claiming your birthright to emancipate

Always walk with that confident sultry strut
Even feel free to switch that feminine butt

Always walk with confidence
Because you are a strong woman with resilience

You are a woman of power and grace
Yet as delicate as fine Burano lace

You are a woman who believes in her significance
Who values her life's true purpose and existence

You are a woman, beautiful and proud
Who demands attention in any large crowd

You are a woman who exerts an exemplary first impression
Who confidently displays her unique self-expression

Therefore, always walk with confidence!
